9 United States of America,

No. CR-18-01695-TUC-JAS (EJM)

10 Plaintiff,

ORDER

11 v.

12 Jermaine Lamar Maxwell,

13 Defendant.

15 Pending before the Court are four Reports and Recommendations issued by United 16 States Magistrate Judge Markovich (Docs. 3595, 3600, 3649, and 3656). The Reports and 17 Recommendations recommend denying the following motions filed by Defendant 18 Jermaine Maxwell: (1) a Motion to Suppress evidence stemming from a traffic stop of 19 Defendant's vehicle¹ on February 3, 2016 (Doc. 3406); (2) a Motion to Suppress evidence
20 seized from a residence on Proctor Vista pursuant to a state search warrant (Doc. 3408); 21 (3) a Motion to Suppress evidence seized from Defendant's vehicle on July 10, 2013 near 22 a residence on McFee Stravenue (Doc. 3407); and (4) a Motion to Suppress evidence and 23 Dismiss overt acts based on evidence seized during a traffic stop of Defendant's vehicle on 24 May 19, 2012 (Doc. 3412).² The Defendant filed an objection to each Report and 25 Recommendation (Docs. 3621, 3616, 3694, and 3693). The Court has reviewed the record
26 and the relevant legal authority bearing on this case. For the following reasons, the Court

27
28 ¹For ease of reference, the Court refers to any vehicle Defendant was driving as
"Defendant's vehicle," regardless of who owned the vehicle.

²Defendant also filed a Supplemental Memorandum related to this Motion. (Doc. 3597).

1 accepts and adopts the Reports and Recommendations with minor modifications as noted
2 herein. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C) (“A judge of the court may accept, reject, or modify,
3 in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations made by the magistrate judge.”).

4 As a threshold matter, as to any new evidence, arguments, and issues that were not 5 timely and properly raised before Magistrate Judge Markovich, the Court exercises its 6 discretion to not consider those matters and considers them waived. United States v.
7 Howell, 231 F.3d 615, 621-623 (9th Cir. 2000) (“[A] district court has discretion, but is not
8 required, to consider evidence presented for the first time in a party’s objection to a 9 magistrate judge’s recommendation To require a district court to consider evidence 10 not previously presented to the magistrate judge would effectively nullify the magistrate 11 judge’s consideration of the matter and would not help to relieve the workload of the 12 district court ‘[I]t would be fundamentally unfair to permit a litigant to set its case in 13 motion before the magistrate, wait to see which way the wind was blowing, and—having 14 received an unfavorable recommendation—shift gears before the district judge.’” (quoting 15 Paterson-Leitch Co. v. Mass. Mun. Wholesale Elec. Co., 840 F.2d 985, 991 (1st Cir.
16 1988)); United States v. Reyna-Tapia, 328 F.3d 1114, 1122 (9th Cir. 2003) (“Finally, it
17 merits re-emphasis that the underlying purpose of the Federal Magistrates Act is to improve 18 the effective administration of justice.”).

19 As to issues not waived, the Court has conducted a de novo review as to Defendant’s 20 objections. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C) (“Within fourteen days after being served with 21 [the Report and Recommendation], any party may serve and file written objections to such 22 proposed findings and recommendations as provided by rules of court. A judge of the court 23 shall make a de novo determination of those portions of the report or specified proposed 24 findings or recommendations to which objection is made.”). As referenced above, in 25 addition to reviewing the Reports and Recommendations, and any objections and 26 responsive briefing thereto, the Court’s de novo review of the record includes review of 27 the record and authority before Magistrate Judge Markovich which led to the Reports and 28 Recommendations in this case.

1 Upon de novo review of the record and authority herein, the Court slightly modifies
2 two of the Reports and Recommendations. As to the Report and Recommendation at Doc.
3 3600, Defendant objects to Magistrate Judge Markovich's finding on page four that "within 4 a period of less than an hour-and-a-half, officers observed ten individuals go into the house
5 and stay for brief periods of time, which is indicative of drug sales." (See Doc. 3616 at 2.)
6 The Court agrees with Defendant that the affidavit stated the period of surveillance was 7 two hours and that "[d]uring that surveillance, the location had 10 short-term contacts with 8 several different individuals." (Doc. 3408-2 at 7 ("The Community Response Team began 9 conducting surveillance starting today at 1600 hours until 1800 hours today.")). To the 10 extent these were factual misstatements by the Magistrate Judge, the Court disregards 11 them. Nevertheless, the Court finds that Magistrate Judge Markovich's conclusion that 12 "the totality of the circumstances set forth in the search warrant affidavit established a fair 13 probability that evidence of narcotic activity would be found in the Proctor Vista house," 14 is correct. (Doc. 3600 at 5).

15 As to Report and Recommendation at Doc. 3656, Magistrate Judge Markovich
16 found officers had reasonable suspicion to stop Defendant's vehicle because they 17 reasonably believed the vehicle had been de-insured based on their department's database, 18 even though that belief later turned out to be mistaken. (Doc. 3656 at 11). The Court agrees 19 with this conclusion. The Court further notes that Defendant's flight from the traffic stop, 20 albeit after initially stopping but then fleeing before the officer reached the vehicle, further 21 contributed to reasonable suspicion. See United States v. Santamaria-Hernandez, 968 F.2d 22 980, 983 (9th Cir. 1992) (whether officers have "founded suspicion to justify a stop may 23 take into account all of the events that occur up to the time of physical apprehension of a 24 suspect who flees"); United States v. Bonner, 363 F.3d 213, 218 (3d Cir. 2004) ("flight
25 from a lawful police traffic stop, where that flight prevented the police from discharging 26 their duty of maintaining oversight and control over the traffic stop, provided the officers 27 with reasonable suspicion to stop [defendant] for further investigation"); see also 28 California v. Hodari D., 499 U.S. 621, 629 (1991) (if defendant does not yield in response

1 to show of authority, seizure has not occurred); United States v. Hernandez, 27 F.3d 1403, 2 1406-07 (9th Cir. 1994) (“momentary hesitation” is not a submission to authority); United 3 States v. Washington, 12 F.3d 1128, 1131-32 (D.C. Cir. 1994) (defendant not seized when 4 he briefly stopped his car for police sirens but then drove away). Additionally, the Court
5 modifies what appears to be a typographical error in this Report and Recommendation. In 6 recounting Officer Gamez’s testimony, Magistrate Judge Markovich states “Officer Gamez
7 was involved in an incident that occurred on May 19, 2002.” (Doc. 3656 at 2). No
8 objections were raised to this typographical error, but the incident at issue occurred on May 9 19, 2012. (See Doc. 3541, Hr’g Tr. 1/17/2025 at 8-9).

10 Except as otherwise noted above, the Court finds Defendant’s objections to be 11 without merit, rejects those objections, and adopts United States Magistrate Judge
12 Markovich’s Reports and Recommendations. See, e.g., United States v. Ramos, 65 F.4th 13 427, 433 (9th Cir. 2023) (“Under [the Federal Magistrates Act], the district court did what 14 § 636(b) requires: it indicated that it reviewed the record de novo, found no merit to 15 [defendant’s] objections, and summarily adopted the magistrate judge’s analysis in his 16 report and recommendation. We have presumed that district courts conduct proper de novo 17 review where they state they have done so, even if the order fails to specifically address a 18 party’s objections.”); United States v. Rodriguez, 888 F.2d 519, 522 (7th Cir. 1989)
19 (“[Defendant] is entitled by statute to de novo review of the subject. Under Raddatz[, 447
20 U.S. 667 (1980),] the court may provide this on the record compiled by the magistrate.
21 [Defendant] treats adoption of the magistrate’s report as a sign that he has not received his 22 due. Yet we see no reason to infer abdication from adoption When the district judge, 23 after reviewing the record in the light of the objections to the report, reaches the 24 magistrate’s conclusions for the magistrate’s reasons, it makes sense to adopt the report, 25 sparing everyone another round of paper.”); Bratcher v. Bray-Doyle Indep. Sch. Dist. No.
26 42 of Stephens Cnty., Okla., 8 F.3d 722, 724 (10th Cir. 1993) (District court’s duty of de 27 novo review based on written objections to the magistrate’s report and recommendation 28 “is satisfied only ‘by considering the actual testimony [or other relevant evidence in the

1 record], and not by merely reviewing the magistrate's report and recommendations.' On 2 the other hand, we presume the district court knew of these requirements, so the express 3 references to de novo review in its order must be taken to mean it properly considered the 4 pertinent portions of the record, absent some clear indication otherwise." (alteration in 5 Bratcher) (quoting Gee v. Estes, 829 F.2d 1005, 1009 (10th Cir. 1987)); Murphy v. Int'l 6 Bus. Machs. Corp., 23 F.3d 719, 722 (2nd Cir. 1994) (Plaintiff's "contention that the 7 district judge did not properly consider her objections to the magistrate judge's report . . .
 8 lacks merit. The judge's brief order mentioned that objections had been made and 9 overruled. We do not construe the brevity of the order as an indication that the objections 10 were not given due consideration, especially in light of the correctness of that report and 11 the evident lack of merit in [plaintiff's] objections.").

12 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

- 13 (1) United States Magistrate Judge Markovich's Reports and Recommendations
 14 (Docs. 3595, 3600, 3649, and 3656) are accepted and adopted as modified.

24 Dated this 22nd day of April, 2025.
